Last Week's Recap

March 15-21

Molloy vs. Hood

Game one ended with Molloy taking the win with 30 kills to Hood's eight kills. Molloy played a dominating game with all members securing a huge lead. Support Zingblob outperformed with his Blitzcrank as he hooked Hood's team over and over again. Mid laner Reso Blue also put on a show by playing a perfect game with Lillia and rendered Hood's mid laner useless.

Game two ended with Molloy taking the win with 35 kills to Hood's four kills. Jungler Mätt played an aggressive game as he grabbed kills across the board to give Molloy a huge early game advantage. With this lead, top laner 1nm was unstoppable on his Singed. Followed by Reso Blue roaming and camping the bottom lane, Molloy was able to grab the win.

Daemen vs. Mercy

Game one ended with Daemen taking the win with 33 kills to Mercy's 20 kills. The coordination between Daemen was impressive this game, as they were able to grab many picks throughout the game to give them the advantage. From there, mid laner Ánti was able to scale and be massive with his Veigar. Daemen was able to take advantage of their superior crowd control to secure the win.

Game two ended with Daemen taking the win with 38 kills to Mercy's 24 kills. Mid laner Ánti played a dominating game with Tristana as he did not hesitate to jump into the fray to burst Hood's team down. Combined with ADC Stany on his AP Twitch, Hood College could not respond to Daemen's burst damage.

Farmingdale St. vs. St. Thomas

Game one ended with Farmingdale taking the win with 25 kills to St. Thomas' four kills. ADC Šhatter played a dominating game as Lucian. Together with jungler jréal and support Agresa, Šhatter was able to snowball early. Using this lead, Šhatter destroyed the bot lane and did not allow St. Thomas' ADC to farm.

Game two ended with Farmingdale taking the win with 24 kills to St. Thomas' four kills. Once again, ADC Šhatter taking advantage of his lead to punish and completely shut out St. Thomas' ADC. Mid laner Hot and Gay followed up with his own massive lead. St. Thomas could not respond to the superior coordination and teamwork of Farmingdale.
